HON'BLE MR. V. O. MARKOS: That is exactly what I say. In Clause 1 we have made the same provision as in the Land Acquisition Act whereby an enquiring officer is bound to make a reference when the application comes from a party. By that Clause the officer is bound to make a reference after he has given an award, he can himself settle the question by making a reference to the District Court. In the light of all these explanations, I suppose, my hon'ble friend will withdraw his amendment.

MR. V. K. VARGHESE: അതു് അത്ര വ്യക്തമായിട്ടുണ്ടെന്നു് എനിക്കു് തോന്നുന്നില്ല. എങ്കിലും ഞാൻ ഭേദഗതി പിൻവലിച്ചുകൊള്ളുന്നു.

HON'BLE MR. V. O. MARKOS: Sir, I will explain it further. In sub-clause (1) my hon'ble friend will find that "any party to the enquiry who is aggrieved by the award" may make an application. This is provided in Land Acquisition Act. But, by sub-clause 3, the enquiry officer can refer the case to the District Court, before making the award, if he finds it difficult to settle the dispute himself.
